

Call for Abstracts

12th Annual Covenant Health Research Day

Tuesday, February 7th, 2017

The Covenant Health Research Centre (CHRC) invites abstracts to be considered for presentation at the 2017 Covenant Health Research Day titled:

“My life in a petri dish – Covenant Health as a living lab”

Research Day Objectives:

- Enable awareness and increase understanding of Covenant Health as a living lab by featuring local expertise;
- Showcase research utilizing living lab concepts;
- Identify needs and aspirations within the Covenant Health context and culture, and profile potential opportunities;
- Explore opportunities to expand or enhance current programs through discussion;
- Demonstrate next steps and identify required supports to apply concepts of living lab; and
- Provide opportunity to engage and network with our partners.

Submissions are invited on topics related to the research objectives.
