

St. Therese Villa, Lethbridge

The Sisters of St. Martha have touched the lives of thousands of southern Albertans by responding to those in need, beginning with the opening of their first hospital, St. Michael's General Hospital (now called St. Michael's Health Centre), in Lethbridge in 1929.

St. Therese Villa was opened in 2008 to meet the community's growing long-term care needs. The facility is a designated supportive living facility that serves 216 residents in southern Alberta, providing compassionate care in an environment that nurtures the residents' minds, bodies and spirits.

Covenant family

The Covenant family contributes to the health and well-being of Albertans as three non-profit Catholic organizations rooted in a 156-year legacy of compassionate care and service in the province. At the heart of Catholic health care is a profound respect for the intrinsic value and dignity of every human being and an unwavering commitment to serving all people — from all backgrounds, faiths and circumstances — especially society's most vulnerable.

As sibling organizations, the three separate entities share the values and mission of the congregations of Sisters who founded health care in Alberta. As leaders and innovators in their fields, each organization contributes to a strategic plan to be of greater service and to transform the health care system and create vibrant communities of health and healing.
